(INTELLIHUB) — One of last Sunday's shooting victims Rocky Palermo who was shot in his pelvis told "The Blast" that after he had been shot he could tell that bullets were sweeping the venue from both elevated positions and from different trajectories horizontally and said that several other shooters were firing from inside the venue.

Palermo believes that 3-5 shooters carried out the massacre at the Route 91 Harvest Music Festival on Oct. 1 killing 58 people.

"I definitely believe that there was 100% more than one shooter," Palermo told The Blast. "Every other person that I talked to that, unfortunately, got hit as well have all said the same things."

The brave man explained that he ran about 200 yards after being shot where he then hid behind a car. He said that he could hear the bullets whizzing by, horizontally, and could tell that a number of the shots were being fired from ground level which supports other eyewitness claims.

"We heard the gunfire approaching where we were," he said. "They just started getting closer and closer, louder and louder. [...] I do believe that there were people [shooters] inside the venue."

Palermo also noticed that all of the gates to the concert facing Las Vegas Blvd. were always left open for the previous night's show but were chained closed about ten minutes before the shooting started.

“At 10:00 they closed every exit on Las Vegas Blvd., every single one.,” he said. “They gated them all closed with chainlink fences [...] the same entrances that we came in and left on Friday and Saturday night were definitely closed.”

Palermo said that cops were directing people to go the wrong way and said that there were a lot of things that occurred that night that ‘didn’t sit right’ with him.

“I believe that there were at least 3 to 5 shooters. One hundred percent there was not just one shooter firing from the 32nd-floor.”

Palermo said that he has tried to call the FBI on several occasions to offer them additional info but said that the FBI has not responded to his requests.
